

Coordonné

train.

Hon. Jas. B. Wells left this morning for Hidalgo on important business.

Wm. Egly, lighthouse keeper at Point Isabel, came up on last evening's train.

Modesto Gonzales of Matamoros has returned from an extensive trip through Mexico.

Dr. G. R. Scott left on the Rio Grande train yesterday to take passage on the Argo for Corpus Christi.

Capt. Jim Browne, commanding the Argo, returned to the Point on yesterday's train, after a brief visit to town.

Judge L. J. Hynes, A. A. Browne and Frank Champion took a trip to the Point yesterday to see the steam-yacht Argo.

E. J. Delfratene, the piano agent, left on the M. & M. this morning for Camargo, Mexico, to deliver some pianos which he has sold there.

Vicente Tamayo, D. Lerma, R. Trevino and Santos Valdez, Jr., were passengers to the Point yesterday. They returned on the evening train.

Judge Jno. O'Neil the well known insurance agent, left on the stage yesterday for his home at Port Lavaca, after a stay of several months in Brownsville.

Town originally signified a or farmhouse. It is used in life in this sense: "And they their ways, one to his town, and to his merchandize."

Abstracts, abridgments, summaries, etc., have the same use with burning glasses—to collect the diffused rays of wit and learning in authors and make them point with warmth and quickness upon the reader's imagination.—Swift.

We must conform to a certain extent to the conventionalities of society, for they are the ripened results of a varied and long experience.—A. A. Hodge.

Among the passengers who came on the Hamburg-Amerika steamer Pennsylvania recent Max Gilbin of Indianapolis known in Indianapolis and Texas Jack and "Cheap John." Indianapolis Sentinel, Gilbin, in his statement, began his trip to Europe and, notwithstanding that he looked hale and hearty with him a coffin for his journey. Gilbin created worldwide concern years ago when he appeared ship with a coffin casket in Europe. It was expensive to build with white silk. He brought eight trips abroad with it. Gilbin instructed the crew to put his casket should he die. Inmortal! It still send his body home to mate!

A party composed of Simon Celaya, Aug. Celaya and wife, Clemente Martinez and H. Sherwood left for the Point at noon yesterday on a special train and spent the afternoon there, returning in the evening.

R. J. Ekridge, Esq., son of Capt. Ekridge of Fort Brown, left on the M. & M. train this morning en route to Seattle, Wash., where he expects to engage actively in the practice of law. Mr. Ekridge made many friends in Brownsville society during his stay here.

Capt. Geo. Wreford, who is one of leading members of the Gulf Coast Canal and Navigation company, returned to the coast yesterday morning. He was accompanied by his brother Chas. Wreford, who holds the position of engineer on the steam yacht Argo.

There is a growing rumor current in Texas that the whiskey element, chaperoned by Anheuser Busch & Co., is planning a pretty little coup by which they expect to stock the legislative body with trusted men who can be depended on to make such a nice little bill that it will put Texas in the broad column against local option and such other measures as effect the personal liberty of the said

A COMPLETE STOCK OF THE FINEST IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC Wines, Cognac, Gin, Ale, Cigars, Pure Olive Oil, Mineral Water and delicacies of every description always on hand. Prompt attention given to all orders, by Mail or otherwise.

—FAMILY TRADE SOLICITED—

Almonds, pecans, filberts, peanuts, raisins, currents, je & B. jams, scamelli m cheese, soda crackers, evi fruits, gelatine, maizena, oat flakes, oat meal, barley self raising buckwheat, queer pickles in keg, chow chow, mackerel, Milcher Holland pickled pigs feet and porl boneless breakfast bacon, berry butter, sour kraut, chile dor, galie, coconuts. Sugar out loaf, powdered and gra apples, etc., etc. Good select household necessities in ti and crockery. To arrive nex er—choice selection of Chi for holiday trade. Agent best washing machine on es

FINE ARTESIAN WELL NEAR CORPUS CHRISTI.

Corpus Christi, Tex., Jan. 2.
—Heretofore the cry for fresh water or at least plenty of it, has drowned all others in this section of the country. A short distance back very good water was obtained on some of the ranches above the city at a depth of 150 feet, and being satisfied with good enough, the parties were content with a limited quantity. However, at the Oso ranch, a few miles above the city, a well was recently bored to a depth of 165

Equality the ideal of society.

The ideal of society is equality, because to the more enlightened and to all in their more enlightened moments inequality is irksome and offensive. You can have no pleasure of the man you look up to or the man you look down on. The thing is impossible. Your soul is always seeking the level of your companion's and society formulates and ex-

Coordonné

Ref: 6421018
Nombre: Vancouver – 6421018
Colección: Contract Vol.3
Uso: Contract
Ancho: 137cm
Largo: 2750cm

